

The human cost of the 2017 floods in South Asia

	 LIVES	 HOMES	 SCHOOLS	 CASES
BANGLADESH	144 lives lost and 8 million people affected	80,000 destroyed	1,227 damaged, putting 324,000 children (aged 6–10) out of school in September	13,035 cases of waterborne diseases reported
INDIA (Assam, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal)	1,000 lives lost and 30 million people affected	1.1 million people had to stay in 3,271 relief camps	15,000 damaged, disrupting the education of nearly 1,000,000 students
NEPAL	More than 150 lives lost and 1.7 million people affected	192,000 damaged	1,958 damaged	